WHY

Verse Images have sustained momentum

Pre-designed verse images have the potential to be shared much more than user created images

Empowering others to use their gifts to help people fully engage with God's word is our heart

MVP

- Splash Page
- Sign up / sign in page
- Verse Assignment page
- Verse Submission page
- User Profile page
- Admin Review page

- responsive design
 - localized

V2

- Submission form for un-assigned images
- Ability for users to view stats on their images

FUTURE IDEAS

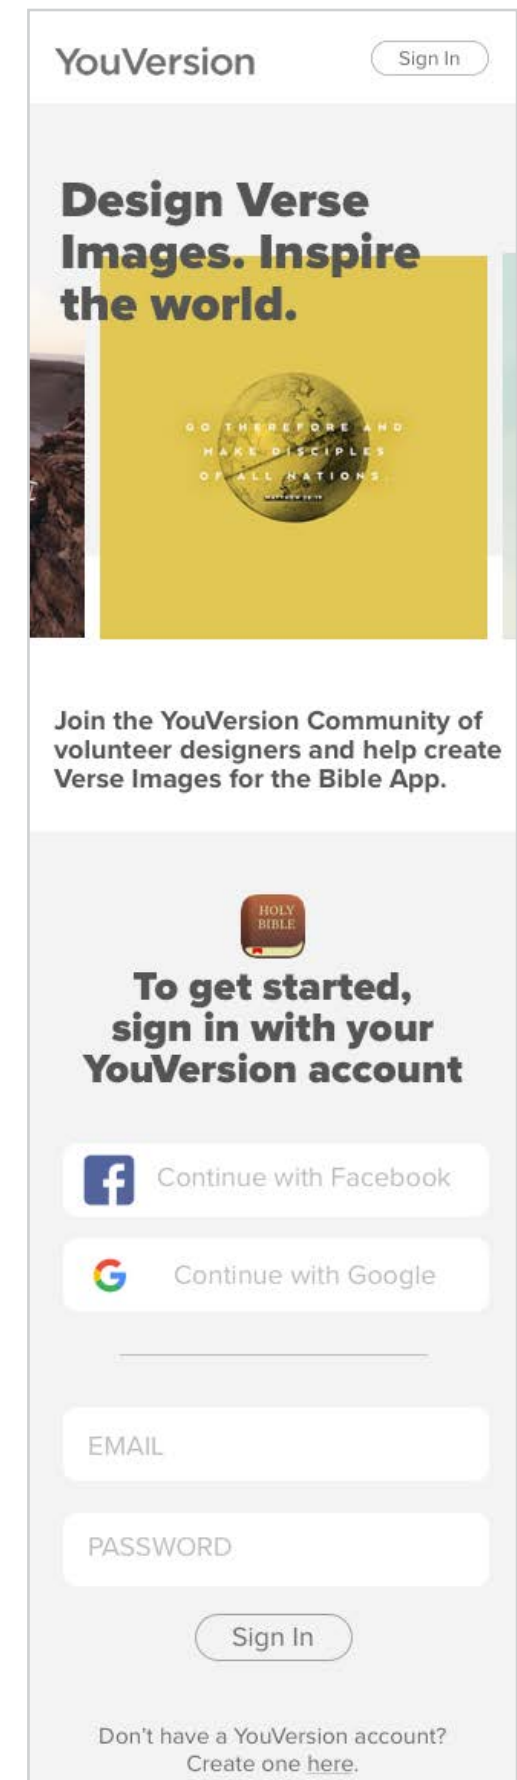

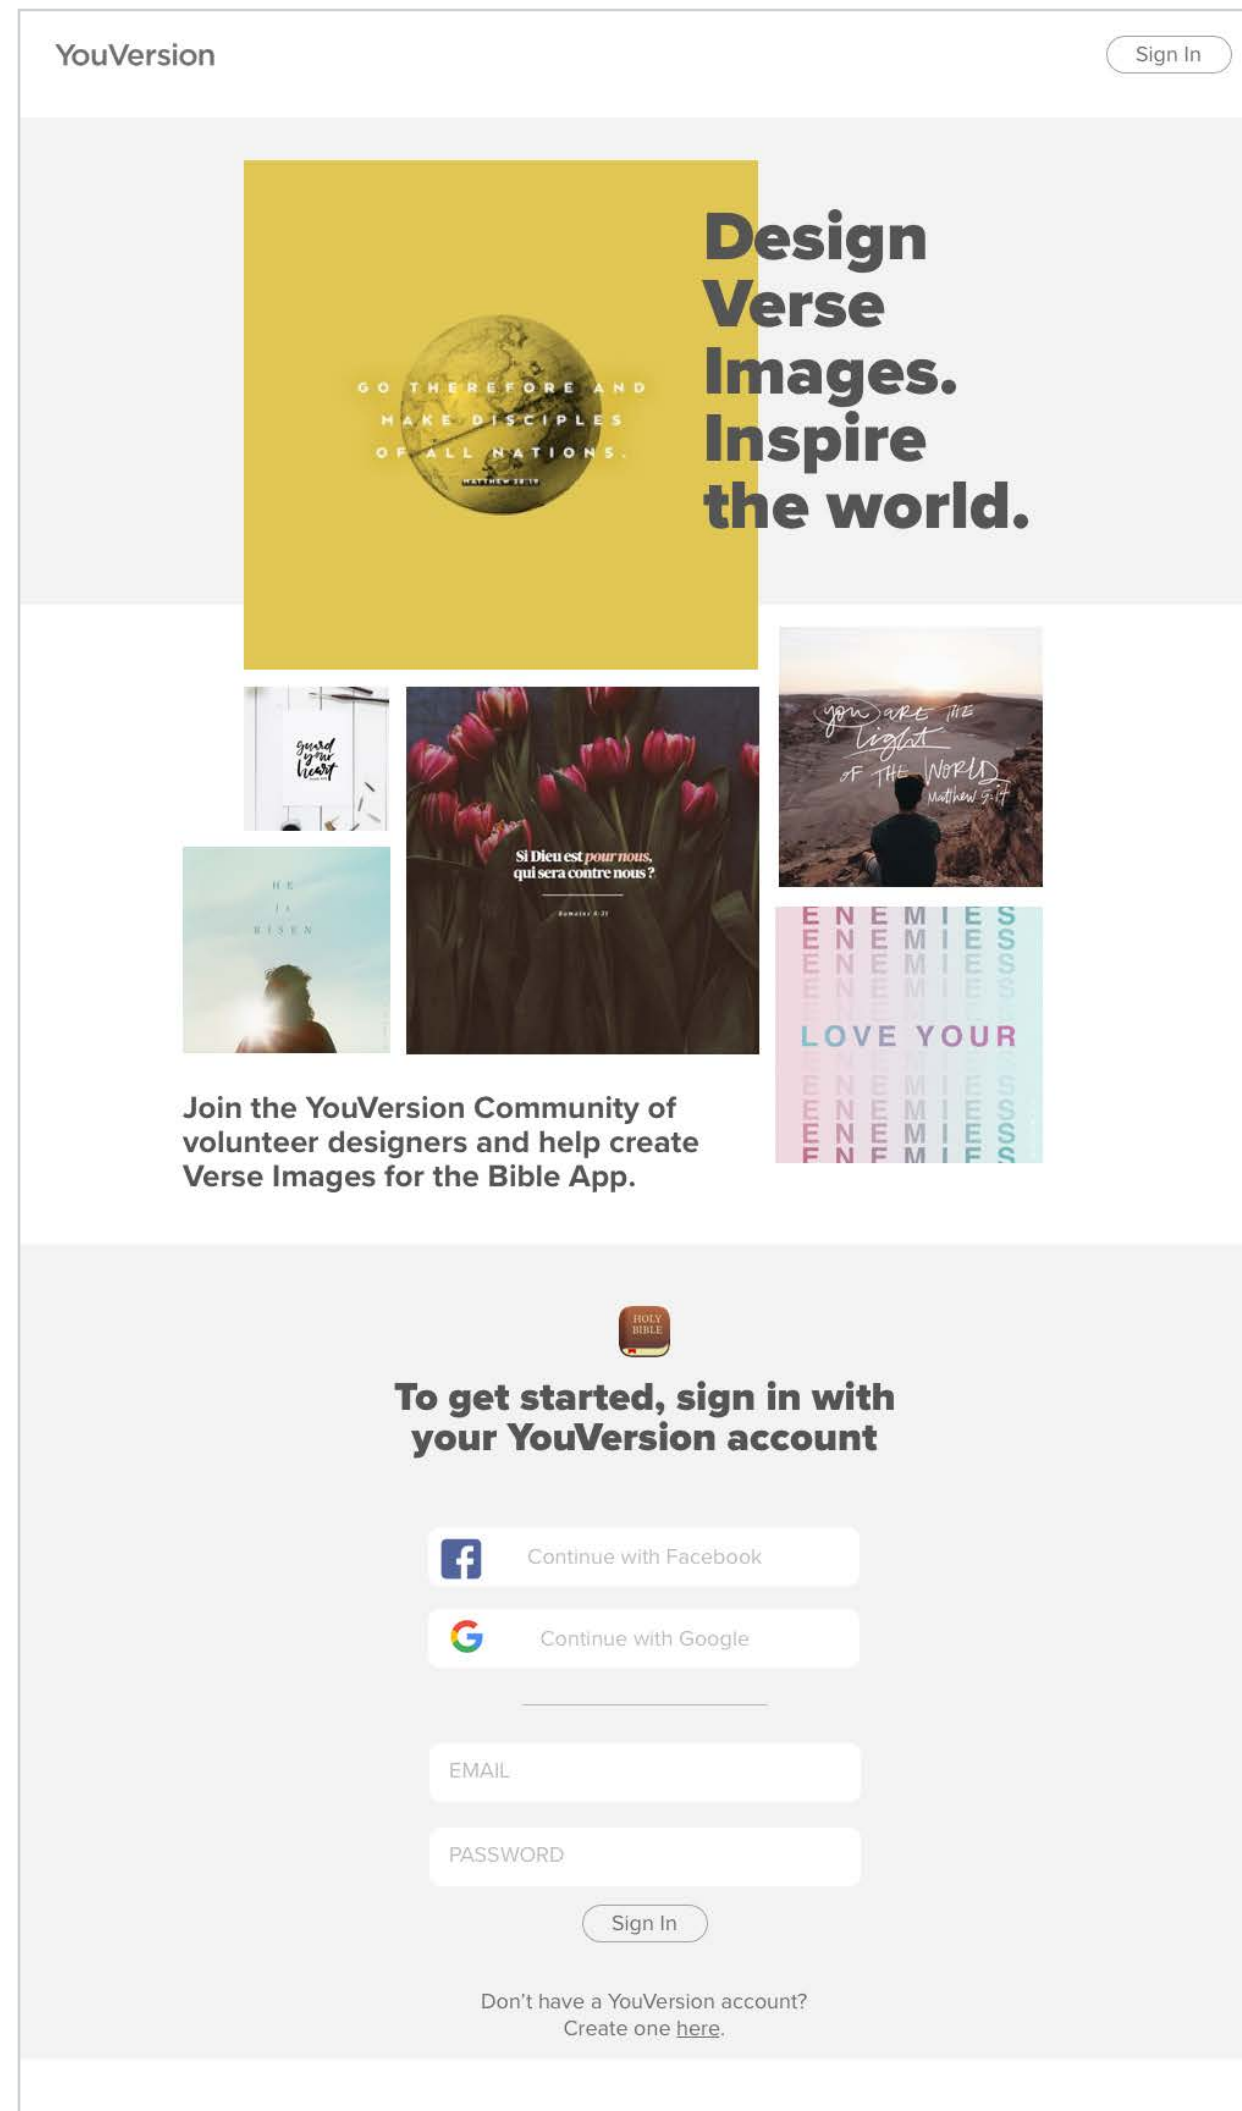

- Community for users to see others users' work

Splash Page

- this is the marketing piece and the front facing part of the design portal

- Sign in with your YV acct and if you don't have one, you will be taken to a flow similar to bible.com's sign up / sign in

- on Mobile, instead of the images being a collage, they will be a carousel

Step One

- this page is only seen once
- once the user has completed these three steps, they won't see this page again
- the user will not be able to proceed until all 3 boxes are filled out

-This is how it will look once a user has hit submit on their answer:

Why do you want to be on the volunteer design team for YouVersion?

Here is why I want to be a designer for YouVersion, I am great at graphix dezine. I love using canva on my phone to make word art and I read on the Bible App every day.

Verse Assignment

- this is essentially the home page of the portal once you are logged in

- this page is showing verses that need verse images and they are sorted by priority of need

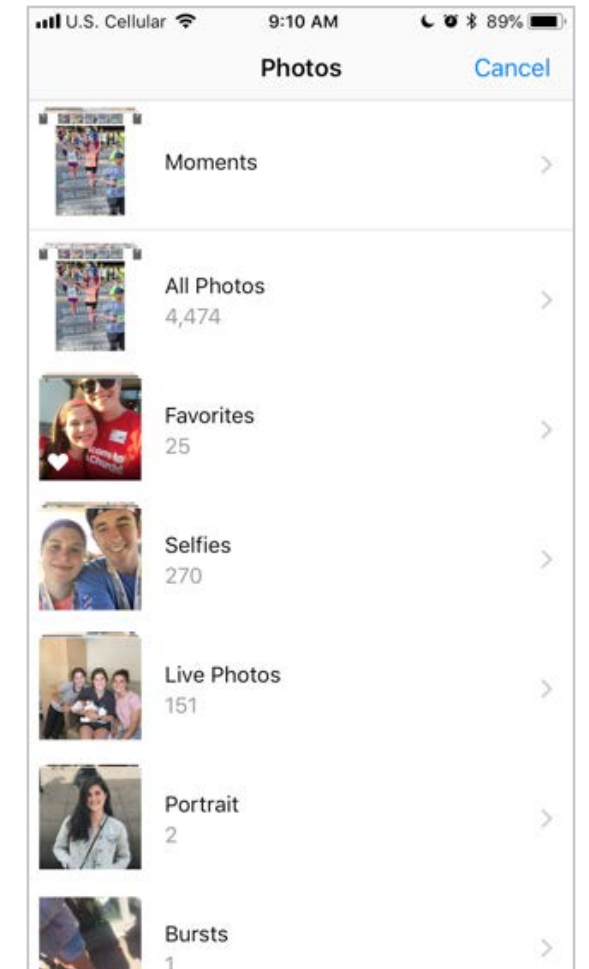

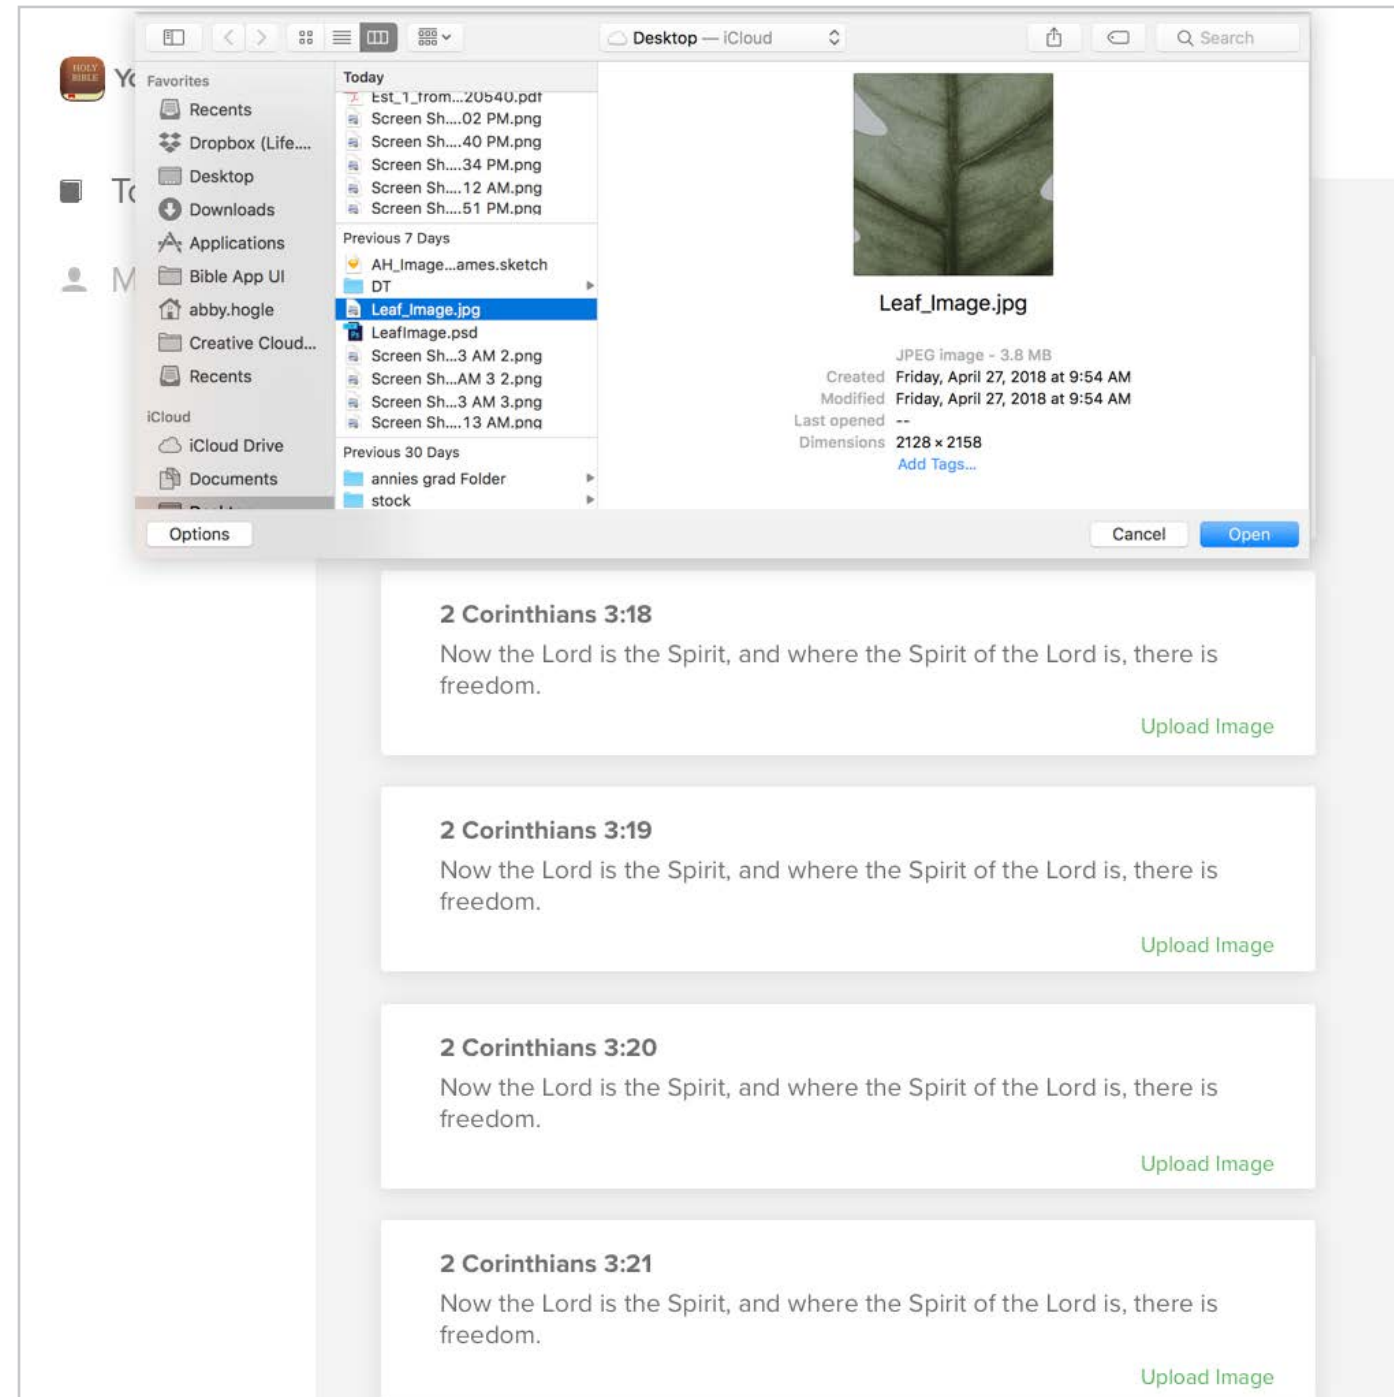

- The user can change the version and language (for v1 it will be locked on english)

- in the top right corner “pending images” is showing how many images you have uploaded that are pending, by clicking on it, you would go to the pending section on “My Images”

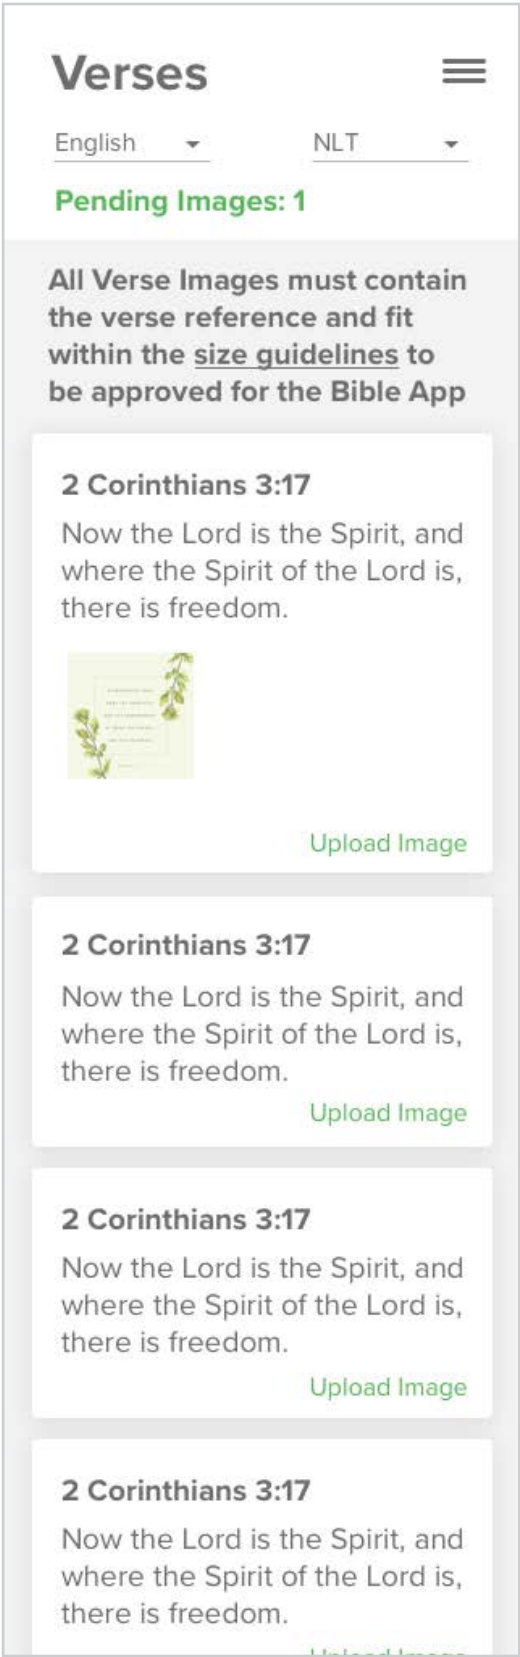

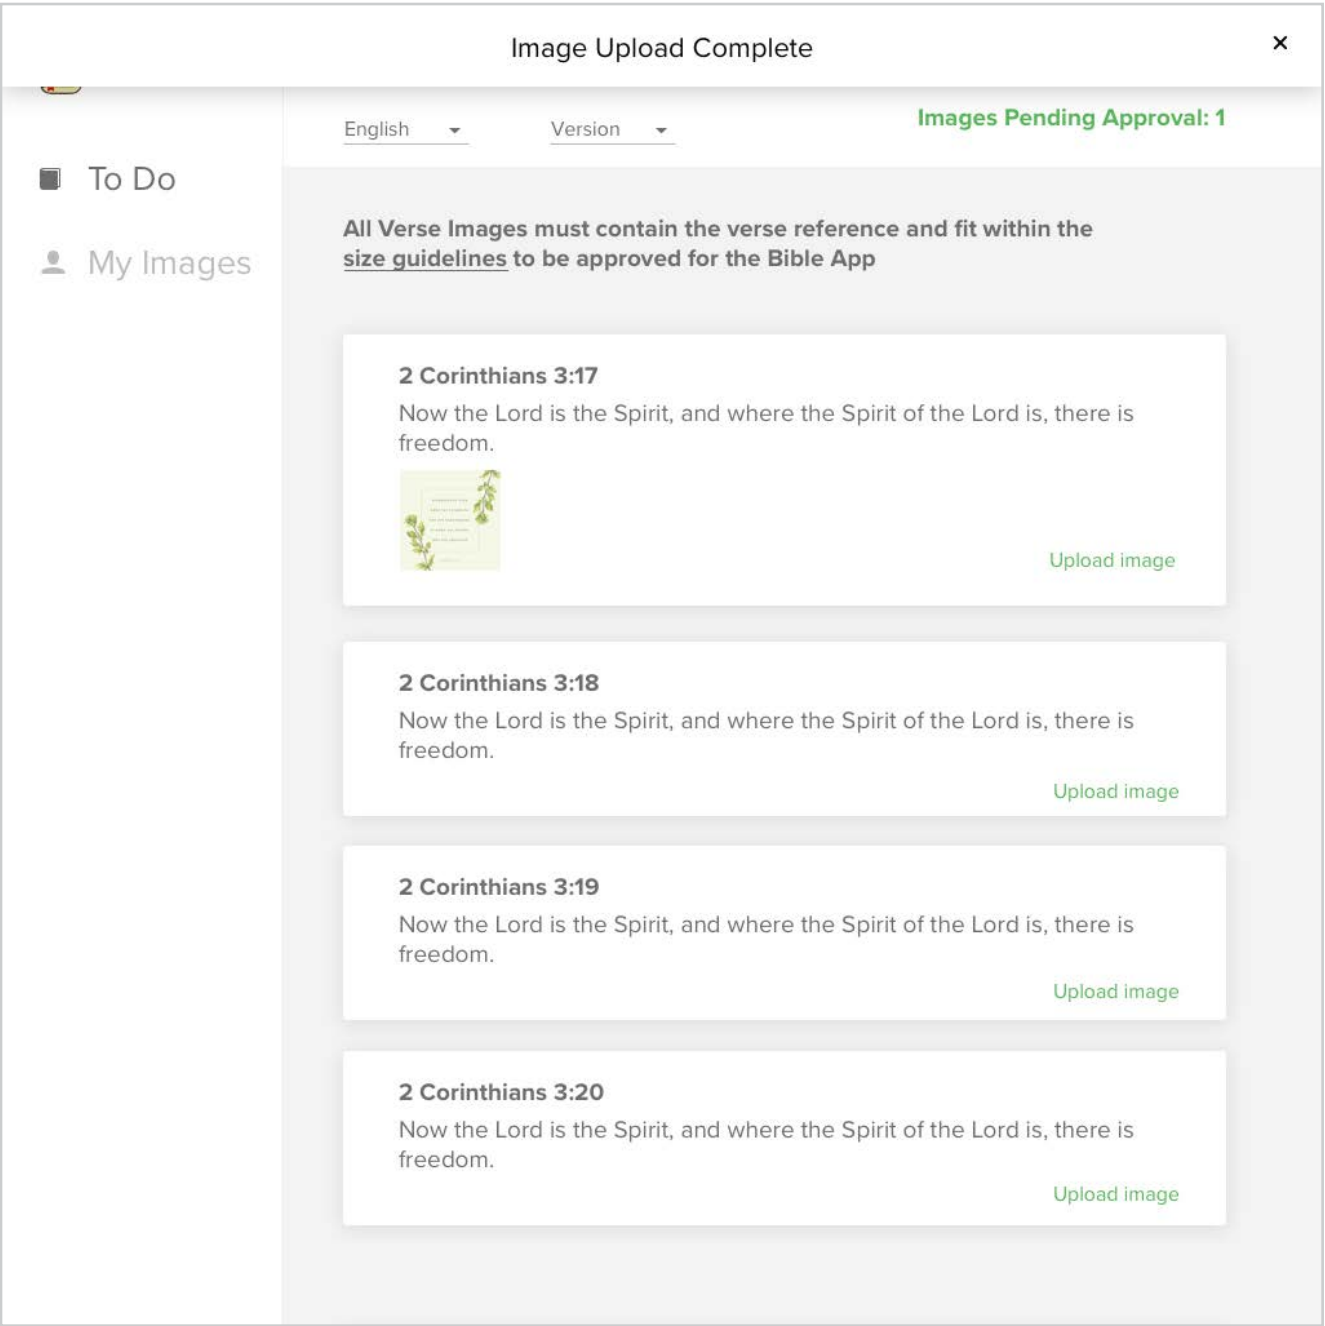

Verse Upload

- Once you have decided the verse you want to design and upload, you will click “upload image” which will bring finder into the window giving you the ability to upload 1 or many images
- you can also drag and drop an image into the verse card
- Mobile will pull up the photos app on your phone

Verse Upload Confirmation

- After selecting and uploading an image, you will get a confirmation notification at the top of the screen that will dissappear
- Pending images count updates
- thumbnail of image is shown in the verse card
- if this page is refreshed, the card will be removed, in order to continue priortizing the verses with the most need

My Images

- Users can view their submissions and filter them by all, approved, declined and pending

Admin Review Pending

- Admins can log in and review images that have been submitted and approve or decline (hover over image to bring up options)
- The pending view will be the first page they see
- They will be able to approve and decline submissions
- They will be able to rank designers with a thumbs up or thumbs down
- Context given for each verse: verse, reference, version, images for same verse already in the app

Admin Review Images

- This view is to get an overview of images that have been submitted
- filter between approved or declined
